Submission Deadline: July 31, 2016 at 11:59pm EST.

FMWC seeks to be the networking and professional development home for all Canadian women in the medical profession while being the preeminent advocate for women's health across Canada.

The FMWC AGM is attended by women physicians in all fields of medicine. The presentations include seminars on leadership, networking, work-life balance, and career transitions. This is an excellent opportunity to showcase your work and network with specialists from across the province and country.

FMWC is now accepting abstracts for its 92nd Meeting in Hamilton, ON. Abstract submission is open to medical students and residents who are current FMWC members (register at: www.fmwc.ca). Submissions will NOT be considered if the presenter is not a member of the FMWC. We encourage poster topics related to sex and gender differences, enriching women physician's leadership and women's health issues.

Submissions will undergo peer review and selected abstracts will be invited for poster presentation at our Student & Resident Poster Session on Sunday, September 25, 2016 at 7:45 - 8:30 am. The presenting author of the top six abstracts will be awarded an opportunity to give a formal oral presentation at the AGM on Sunday, September 25, 2016.
